

Back to object

Collection Explorer

Wooden scribe made from wood with a steel screw holding the pieces together

1988.0069.0010

Wooden scribe made from wood with a steel screw holding the pieces together

Physical description

A wooden scribe made from wood with a steel screw holding the pieces together. There are shallow scratches and marks on the surface of the wood and the metal screw has rusted.

Object information

What

Type	Woodworking tools
Collection	George O Crawford collection
Dimensions	L 228mm x W 15mm
Material	Steel , Wood

When

Period of use	Period of use
1900-1905	1905-1914
Used during apprenticeship in Goulburn?	Used in contracted work in Sydney?
Period of use
1920-1951
Used in employment with the NSW

 Who

User

Mr George O. Crawford

Used by carpenter George Crawford from 1900-1951.

Associated organisation

NSW Department of Railways

George Crawford was employed with them from 1920-1951

 Where

Place of use

Goulburn, New South Wales, Australia

1900-1905?

Place of use

Sydney, New South Wales, Australia

1905-1951?

Back to top