

Back to object

Collection Explorer

Three-panel mural of postage stamps, which depicts Sydney in 1988, Bicentenary of Australia, 1788-1988

1992.0077.0001.003

Three-panel mural of postage stamps, which depicts Sydney in 1988, Bicentenary of Australia, 1788-1988

Description

Three-panel mural which depicts Sydney in 1988, crowded with signs of prosperity, activity, and Australian symbols, such as the Sydney Opera House, Sydney Harbour Bridge and a Qantas jet.

Physical description

A three-panel mural which depicts Sydney harbour, crowded with Australian landmarks or symbols, such as the Sydney Opera House, Sydney Harbour Bridge and the Australian flag. Postage stamps are stuck to the wooden backing to form the picture. Each panel has a number in white on the back which denotes the panel's position in the sequence.

Object information

What

Type Murals

Collection Garnet Watkins collection

Dimensions W 2709mm x H 1682mm x D 24mm

Material Paper.
Wood.
Paint - non specific.
Ink

 When

Date made

1981

Associated period

1788-1988

 Who

Maker

Alban Watkins

Subject

Commonwealth of Australia

 Where

Place made

Bentley, Perth, Western Australia, Australia

Subject

Sydney, New South Wales, Australia

Subject

Sydney Opera House, Bennelong Point, Sydney, New South Wales, Austr...

Subject

Sydney Harbour Bridge, Sydney Harbour, Sydney, New South Wales, Aus...

Back to top