

Cartoon titled 'The Scam'.

2001.0036.0131

Cartoon titled 'The Scam'.

Physical description

A black and white hand drawn cartoon titled 'The Scam', showing caricatures of Peter Costello and John Howard, with groups of people behind and in front of them. Mr Costello holds a paper that is headed 'SPEECH / WHY I AM / LEADER / MATERIAL', and has a speech bubble that reads 'The first time / I knew about / the scam was / when evidence showed / that I knew about / it before I said / I did..'. The words 'LIBERAL / PARTY' are above the group behind Mr Costello and Mr Howard. There are papers on the ground with text such as 'NORTHERN / TERRITORY / DEFEAT' and 'QUEENSLAND / DEBACLE'. The artist's signature is in the bottom right hand corner.

Object information

? What

Type	Cartoons
Collection	Political Humour Competition 2001 collection
Dimensions	W 297mm x H 210mm
Material	Paper

🕒 When

Date of publication	Date of event
2001	2001

👤 Who

Cartoonist

Mr Bruce Petty

Subject

The Hon Peter H. Costello

Subject

The Liberal Party of Australia

Publisher

The Age

Subject

Hon John W. Howard

Where

Place of event

□

Old Parliament House, Parkes, Canberra, Australian Capital Territor...

This cartoon was displayed in the Bringing the House Down exhibition at Old Parliament House in 2001

Back to top